Museum of 20th Century Warfare to Honor Korean War Veterans Through Exhibit on October 17-18 at Fort Harrison State Park

The Museum of 20th Century Warfare and Fort Harrison State Park will honor Korean War Veterans through an exhibit on the Korean War on October 17-18 at the State Park Office.

The Korean War was fought across the Korean peninsula beginning in 1950 until a truce was declared in 1953 between North and South Korea, China, and the various supporting countries of the United Nations, including the United States.

Fort Harrison was a part of the Korean war effort, providing financial support from the Finance Center Ground for the current finance center was broken during the time of the Korean War.

There is no cost to the program, the normal $5 weekend in-state/ $7 out-of-state gate fee applies. For more information, please contact the park office at 317-591-0122.
